

“EL DIA DE LOS MUERTOS”

22nd Annual

AN OUTDOOR PARTY TO HONOR THE DEAD
AND CELEBRATE LIFE!!

--TRADITIONAL CEREMONIAL FIRE--
SATURDAY November 5th 2011 5:00 PM--till?
At the in-town palm farm

This event is open, our family and friends--- welcome you, your friends and neighbors
Bring your memories and spirit to share with others

On All Saints Eve
When the moon is near
Once again this is the invitation of the year

The Day of the Dead is near
Come rejoice in Spirit and Cheer
The Raven flies to pull the veil
To reveal those of memory and lore

Each year we, the people who come, participate in building "La Ofrenda". This is a powerful symbolic gesture from our hearts and memory. By bringing a photograph, flowers, vigil candle or something special to honor and remember those persons, we build together a place of honor and combined thought.

The traditions (as you well know):
There will be music with a live DJ, dancing and fair
in this celebration of life by honoring death.

We will provide tons of traditional chili and sodas, (wine and beer will be available).

Pot-Luck so bring a dessert or salad, or your favorite dish to impress

Come early to enjoy the great outdoors. Stay late to soak up the night stars.

Bring your friends to enjoy the company--new people that you may enjoy.

An evening under the stars is where you'll meet.
